

Assistance During National Disasters

Overview

The BDF has over the years assisted local authorities during national disasters. The BDF is constantly on standby with resources and experienced personnel to assist Batswana in need. The BDF has helped Batswana during flooding incidents around the country.

Who is eligible?

All members of the public

How do I get this service?

This service is accessed through the National Disaster Management Office.

What supporting documents are required?

None

How long will this service take?

Service is treated as an Emergency.

How much does it cost?

The service is free.

Where can I obtain this service?

National Disaster Management, Office Of The President

Where can I get more information on this Service

National Disaster Management

Office Of The President

3950800