

Reporting an Incident to the Police

Overview

This service entails how the police respond to call outs regarding crime reports/incidents. Members of the public are encouraged to report any crime, road traffic accident or any incident reportable to the police.

The following information may be required when reporting;

- Exact location of the incident
- Time of the incident
- Any injuries or casualties

Who is eligible?

- Victim
- Witness
- Any member of the public.

How do I get this service?

- For emergency call 999
- Report to nearest police station, police post
- Report to any police officer in proximity

What supporting documents are required?

None

How long will this service take?

Our standards for responding after receiving a report are:

- 16 minutes in urban areas
- 60 minutes in other areas

How much does it cost?

Free

Where can I obtain this service?

Any police station or post.

Where can I get more information on this Service

At the nearest police station, post or establishment.