

Spatial Planning Data

Overview

Spatial plans are a set of documents that indicate a strategic direction for the development of a given geographic area. It outlines the policies, priorities, programmes and land allocations that will guide the strategic direction and influence the distribution of people and activities in spaces of various scales. These plans are carried out at national, regional and local levels.

Who is eligible?

Sectoral departments, general public, local authorities.

How do I get this service?

Paying a visit to the Department of Town and Country Planning.

What supporting documents are required?

- GPO if you from a government department
- No supporting documents for general public

How long will this service take?

One (1) Day

How much does it cost?

Regional Development Plans BWP350

Local Plans BWP350

Where can I get more information on this Service

For more information please contact the two DTCP offices available below. Opening hours are from 07:30 to 12:45 and 13:45 to 16:30, Monday to Friday, except public holidays:

Department of Town and Country Planning (Head Quarters)

Private Bag 0042

Gaborone, Botswana

Tell: (+267) 3630700

Fax: (+267) 3956015

Department of Town and Country Planning (Regional Office)

Private Bag 16

Francistown, Botswana

Tell: (+267) 2412966

Fax: (+267) 2415817